To Whom It May Concern:

The Stone Collection has regularly done business with Slabworks of Montana since opening in early 2008. We have acted as a wholesale slab distributor to Slabworks of Montana. The Stone Collection supplies all types of natural stone slab to Slabworks of Montana.

Slabworks of Montana is a top-notch client. They provide the highest quality stone fabrication work along with excellent service. Their unique combination of capabilities, experience and expertise make them an industry leader. Dave Scott is a seasoned, experienced stone expert who truly cares about each and every client. He takes a very hands-on approach to his business. Slabworks of Montana has earned a well-deserved, excellent reputation in the industry and community.

Prior to the inception of The Stone Collection in 2008, several of us had done business with Slabworks of Montana over many years during our time at other entities. Dave Scott and everyone at Slabworks of Montana have always conducted themselves admirably and professionally. It is without reservation that I recommend Slabworks of Montana for MIA accreditation.

Please feel free to contact me directly with any questions.
